“Go Out And Do Like He Done!”

“My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power” (I Cor. 3:4)

Several years ago I read a letter which reportedly was sent by a newly-hired traveling salesman to his boss. The letter revealed that the salesman was virtually illiterate. He wrote:

“I seen this outfit who aint got a dimes worth of nothing from us and sole them sum goods.”

Before he could be fired a second letter arrived. It was just as illiterate. It read:

“I come to Chicawgo and sole them half a millyon”

The sales manager dumped the problem into the president’s lap. The next day the staff was amazed to see the salesman’s letters on the bulletin board, with this memo:

“We ben spending two much time tryin to spel insted of tryin to sell. I want everybody should read these letters from Gooch, who is doin a grate job, and should go out and do like he done!”

The apostle Paul was a brilliant man who considered his speech to be “of no account”. Sometimes we worry more about appearances than about our mission. God does not depend on human wisdom or charisma; He depends on devotion to the task.

The Spirit of God shines through our weaknesses. God has chosen the foolish things of our world to put to shame those who are wise and the weak things to bring down the strong (I Cor. 1:20-31). The message of the cross does not need eloquence of speech. It needs men and women who have decided “to know nothing...except Jesus Christ and him crucified” (1 Cor. 2:2).
