Humpty Dumpty

Do you remember Humpty Dumpty? When he fell from his wall he was broken into so many pieces that he couldn't be put together again. Why was Humpty Dumpty sitting on that wall in the first place? Did he need to be sitting there, or was he trying to find some kind of excitement, or just disobeying his mother?

A lot of Christians find themselves sitting on walls they should not have climbed... walls of prejudice, arrogance, and greed. Walls which elevate themselves over others and separate them from others. Walls which are created through anger or self-will. These walls bring us down, they shatter us when we fall. And we are powerless to put the pieces together again.

The good news is that nothing needs to stay broken. God is in the business of putting things together. He brought order out of chaos in the beginning and He can do it again. The One who calmed the storms of Galilee can bring peace in troubled hearts. He offers healing and cleansing to us when we are broken and damaged beyond our ability to repair ourselves.

Sometimes we have to be broken before God can use us. We have to fall from our elevated positions of self-importance and conceit. We have to come face to face with our sinful, polluted inner nature. We have to admit that we are broken and powerless to fix the broken pieces.

After looking at his failures to live up to God's standard of holiness, Paul exclaimed, "Wretched man that I am! Who can deliver me from this body of death?" (Romans 7:24). He answers his own question: "Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!"

God also breaks down walls. "For He is our peace...and He has broken down the dividing wall of hostility" (Ephesians 2:14). Jesus said that the peace He gives is unlike any peace we find in the world. He doesn't simply clean us up, He makes us completely new! And we can start over again.
